

Future of work	Future of industry	Future of society
Plenary: "Re-imagining Britain" (Blue Door Expo opening address) Presenter: Jo Bertram, Managing Director at O2 Business
Plenary: "Mindset; From incremental to exponential growth" Presenter: Ismail Alam, Chief Growth Officer at Capita
PANEL: "Right tools, right person, right time" From the way we work, to our expectations as a consumer and citizen, technology continues to play a major part in transforming the ways we live. This session looks at how work the way we connect with other people, devices, places and things continues to evolve and what we're expecting to see over the next 5 years. A panel session providing market insights and forecasts from businesses creating the next evolution of devices, connectivity options and solutions. Facilitator: Zoe Hominick, Head of Business marketing and CEX, O2 Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Marcus Wheldon - President at Bell Labs and CTO at Nokia * Joe Walsh - Director of B2B at Samsung * Nick Hedderman - Director, Modern Work & Security Business Group at Microsoft * Rob Price - CTO, UK Partner Organisation at Cisco 	PANEL: "Driving innovation" "The only constant in life is change" - Heraclitus Consumer/citizen attitudes are changing at an accelerated pace. Access to information, insights and opinions has never been so easy. Social platforms can amplify a voice with a few keyboard clicks. And with the top 5 global companies all technology related, the need to maintain relevance in a very crowded digital world has never been so real – for public and private organisations, both large and small. Today you not only need to be better than you were yesterday, but you need to constantly consider the world in which you operate; adapt or die. Join this panel as we look at the challenges being met by industries from retail, finance and high street operations through to public sector and infrastructure. Facilitator: Darren Buttrick, Head of Enterprise Sales (private sector) Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Simon Reed, Head of IT Service & Operations, at Suffolk County Council * Andy Burton, CTO, at The Very Group * Louise Hunter, Corporate Affairs & Marketing Director, at Northumbrian Water Group * Phill Scully, CIO, at Costa Coffee Karl Liriano, Head of innovation, strategy and architecture, at O2 	PANEL: "Learnings for leaders; diversity and inclusivity, accessibility, trust and reputation." "Inclusion is not a matter of political correctness. It is the key to growth." — Jesse Jackson "As technology enables trust in new forms, we're seeing a decline of trust in institutions." – Rachel Botsman This panel looks to explore the corporate responsibility of every organisation to not only be fair and trustworthy, but to also support the whole of every community they serve and are a part of. These shouldn't be political motivations, but serve as the catalyst for good business. Facilitator: Maryam Minhas, Sales and Partner Manager-Interactive Messaging at O2 Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * David Clarke, Director of Services at Royal National Institute of Blind People (RNIB) * Jake Dubbins, Co-Founder and Co-Chair at Conscious Advertising Network * Paul Asare- Archer, Head of Compliance at O2
"Research insights: the future of work" Presenter: Mike Higgins, SVP Product management at Asavie		"Trust and reputation" Presenter: Jake Dubbins, co-chair at Conscious Advertising Network
Plenary: "Samsung: bringing people and technology together" Presenter: Executive Vice President/Head of Group, Global Mobile B2B Team at Samsung
Apple special presentation (max 90 attendees) "The Power of Apple. Put to Work"

Solution spaces and round tables.

Throughout the day we encourage guests to also allow time to explore the solution zones – interact with peers from across industries, and join the roundtables that allow for open discussion.

Notes: Solution areas are open all day and we suggest exploring these between watching the various presentations. Roundtables must be booked and run each day between 12:30 and 13:30.

Future of work	Future of industry	Future of society
PANEL: "Embracing change; the opportunities from disruption" When traditional practices meet a need for agile working, how do you find the best way forward for your business? A session that discusses the opportunities arising from the world in the midst of significant change, and what it means for the very definition of workplace and workspace. What lessons have been learnt? How are decision making practices needing to adapt? What opportunities, mind-set and culture needs to be adopted to create opportunities through disruption? Facilitator: Katy Liddell, Director Business Sales and Service at O2 Panellists: * Robert Gordon, CEO at Hitachi Capital * Victoria Higgin, CIO and Exec Director at Highways England * Giles Perkins, Head of Future Mobility at WSP UK * Sergio Budkin, Director of Business Products and Propositions at O2	PANEL: "Industries in evolution and a country in change" "Any customer can have a car painted any colour that he wants so long as it is black." Henry Ford In economical terms, technological change supports economic growth. It drives spending not just at the manufacturing level, but also by expanding, and making products and services more relevant. Technical innovation adoption by industry has moved us quickly in to an era of customisation and personalisation, but are we still in a period of rapid evolution, or are the easiest of technological changes now conquered and the future is preparing for less dramatic re-invention? From industry4.0 and private networks, to robotics, data analytics and AI, this panel looks at several industry leaders and the role that connectivity and new technologies will play a part in the evolution of traditional organisations as we embrace this digitally connected era. Facilitator: Antony Morse, Head of digital Solutions, O2 Panellists: * Steve Rose, Senior Partner at Bell Research Labs * Julie Wardhaugh, Chief Architect, Strategy Execution at British Sugar * John Roberts, CEO at AO.com Andrei Brasoveanu, Partner at Accel	PANEL: "Smart Cities; what they mean to you." Smart Cities aren't just about implementing technologies, but how those technologies are used to optimise experiences and services for people and planet. In this session we explore the topics of what makes a smart city work. What are the opportunities, and pitfalls? What does proper investment at a local and regional level mean for citizens and businesses? And what needs to happen to realise the opportunities of connected people, infrastructure and services? Facilitator: Geoff Wappett, Head of O2 Motion at O2. Panellists: * Steve Rose, Executive Partner at Bell Labs Consulting * Robert Franks, Managing Director at West midlands 5G (WM5) * Laila Takeh, Digital Strategy and Innovation Senior Manager at SprinG * Alastair McMahon, Commercial Director – Smart Cities, Health, Mobility at O2
PLENARY: "The actions and mindset for developing high performance teams" Mark Evans, CEO at O2 and Eddie Jones, England men's Head Coach at RFU

End of day one content

14th October

Solution spaces and round tables.

Throughout the day we encourage guests to also allow time to explore the solution zones – interact with peers from across industries, and join the roundtables that allow for open discussion.

Notes: Solution areas are open all day and we suggest exploring these between watching the various presentations. Roundtables must be booked and run each day between 12:30 and 13:30.

Future of work	Future of industry	Future of society
PLENARY: "Defining the future: Accelerating 5G British public and private sector" Presenters: Brendan O'Reilly, CTO at O2 Poppy Dowell, Head of 5G Acceleration at Wayra and Spring Tommi Uitto, President of Mobile Networks at Nokia
PLENARY: "Delivering future innovation through partnership (Nokia and O2)" Presenter: Jane Rygaard, Head of Dedicated Wireless networks
"The key to enabling today's workforce" Presenter: Debra Bailey, CIO at O2	"Understanding the present to protect the future; cybersecurity trends and insight" Presenters: Pedro Pablo, CEO at ElevenPaths Maximiliano Lewinsky, Country Manager UK, US and GE at Telefonica Tech (Cybersecurity)	"Decarbonising Transport; from 5G to new energy investment" Presenter: Eman Martin-Vignerte, Director at Bosch
"Defining opportunities for employee and customer engagement" Presenter: Richard Newsome, CTO - Corporate at Sainsbury's	"The future of security" Presenter: Marcel van der Heijden, Lead Partner, Deep Tech at Speedinvest	"What does society value?" Presenter: Steve Martineau, UNFCCC COP26 High Level Climate Action Champion lead - Mobile & ICT
"Insights for the future of work" Presenter: Janine Chamberlain, Director, Enterprise Sales Talent Solutions at LinkedIn	PANEL: "Cyber-security; protecting at what cost?" " Cyber-Security is much more than a matter of IT." — Stephane Nappo We are living in world which is increasingly connected; from eCommerce and cloud based solutions to IoT devices, national infrastructure and digital currencies. The solutions are designed to deliver better collaboration, enhance customer and citizen engagement/services, and deliver digital insights for better decision making. But with the productivity and efficiency improvements, the rise of new threats that look to steal, compromise, embarrass, or hold to ransom an organisation's information is on the rise. And there's one clear element that can make or break your cyber security efforts – the human factor. In this panel we look at the key aspects of designing and developing a cyber-security approach that keeps people at its centre. Facilitator: Jim Everett, Digital Infrastructure Specialist (Connectivity and Security-Cyber Security), O2 Panellists: * Phil Donnelly, Detective Chief Inspector at Derbyshire Police * Nick Dawson, Global Head of B2B Solutions at Samsung * Marcel Van Der Heijden, Lead Partner, Deep Tech at Speed Invest * Patricia Nicola, Head of Venture Development and Partnerships at Wayra
"Employing technology" Presenter: Paul Jacquin, at Partner, Board Member and Advisor at Taprove Ventures & Randstad Innovations

Solution spaces and round tables.

Throughout the day we encourage guests to also allow time to explore the solution zones – interact with peers from across industries, and join the roundtables that allow for open discussion.

Notes: Solution areas are open all day and we suggest exploring these between watching the various presentations. Roundtables must be booked and run each day between 12:30 and 13:30.

Future of work	Future of industry	Future of society
Apple special presentation (max 90 attendees) "The Power of Apple. Put to Work"
PANEL: "Evolution of workforce and culture" With employees staying an average of 4.5 years in UK businesses, the concept of having a job for life has faded. What does the current environment mean for traditional workplace and our people? From workplace culture, staff benefits and a change in the way that success, productivity and satisfaction are measured. What are the implications for recruitment, talent development, learning and development. How do you manage a workforce that covers 5 generations currently sharing the workplace and how can you ensure your workplace is ready for the future? Join this discussion to explore the role that technology can play in attracting and keeping the right people for your future needs. Facilitator: Kate Mulligan-Brown, Director of SMB Marketing, O2 Panellists: * Janine Chamberlain, Director, Enterprise Sales Talent Solutions at LinkedIn * Jon Conn, technology Director at RFU * Paul Jacquin, Partner, Board Member and Advisor, Taptrove Ventures and Randstad Innovation * Catherine Leaver, Human Resources Director at O2	"Data driving decisions." Presented by Elena Gil Lizaioian, Global Director of Product and Business Operations at Telefonica IoT & Big Data PANEL: "Data driven insights; the role of AI and analytics in a very human world" "An organization's ability to learn, and translate that learning into action rapidly, is the ultimate competitive advantage." - Jack Welch It is expected that every human on the planet will be creating approximately 1.7Mb of information every second. And with new low powered networks and IoT devices, that information will continue to grow. But just like the kitchen draw that collects un-connected "things" how do you ensure you're connecting the right data sets to tell a story that helps you define strategic and tactical actions. During this panel we'll discuss what the right tools like, what true data driven insight can achieve, and the opportunity for individuals to understand the real value of their data. Facilitator: Dave Cornwell, Head of Solutions, O2 Panellists: * David Jones, Senior VP of IT at AEG * Chaminga Chandratillake, Chief Analytics Officer at Sainsbury's * Louise Maynard-Atem, Innovation Specialist, Data Exchange at Experian * Davin Crowley-Sweet, Chief Data Officer at Highways England	PANEL: "Smart investments: technologies for a greener, connected, and sustainable future" "It's not an investment if it's destroying the planet." - Andana Shiva As our energy demands, goods consumption and population continue to grow, organisations are looking at the conscious changes they can make to take social responsibility for their impact to planet and community. This comes as we also see a willingness of consumers to purchase from business with the same ethical concerns and focusses they have, rewarding those that do with their business, or the volunteering of their time. This session looks to understand the importance that technology plays in supporting sustainable business models and the benefits this can deliver. Facilitator: Tracey Herald, Head of Partnerships and Social Impact, O2. Panellists: * Oliver Rosevear, Head of Environment at Costa Coffee * Trewin Restorick, CEO and founder at Hubbub * Jeff Knot, Operations Director Central and Eastern England at Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB)
PLENARY: "The value of strategic partnerships" Mark Evans, CEO at O2 and Paul Pomroy, CEO at McDonald's UK & Ireland
PLENARY: Blue Door Expo wrap-up; 2 days of learnings and insight. Event summary reel

End of day two content

October 15th

Solution spaces and round tables.

Throughout the day we encourage guests to also allow time to explore the solution zones – interact with peers from across industries, and join the roundtables that allow for open discussion.

Notes: Solution areas are open all day and we suggest exploring these between watching the various presentations. Roundtables must be booked and run each day between 12:30 and 13:30.